OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

PETER ANGELOS
MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August of 1993.

Since 1993 the Orioles have led the American League in attendance and have set new club records in either overall attendance or sold out games. The Orioles have drawn 3.7 million fans in each of the past two years and have reached the American League Championship series in two of the last three seasons. Further, since purchasing the team in '93, ownership has increased annual club revenues by a margin of 55%. Every dollar of this increased revenue has been directed toward improving the product on the field. The Orioles ownership has committed to building a winner by signing players to long-term contracts and rebuilding a farm system that is now just beginning to pay dividends. The Orioles competitive record on the field and financial performance at the box office have improved both the value of the franchise and the baseball experience for Orioles fans.

Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Fans who were seated in box seats down the left and right field lines had complained since the park's opening because their seats were improperly angled toward center field. More than 3,300 seats in question have been adjusted to improve their angle. Fans who felt uncomfortable when being approached near the ballpark by aggressive ticket scalpers received support from the Baltimore City Council in '94 after Mr. Angelos sponsored a bill to banish the practice from the areas within 10 blocks of Camden Yards. In 1995 a "scalp free zone" was created at the ballpark for fans wishing to purchase tickets or sell tickets to others for face value. In addition, many fans whose season tickets were unfairly relocated when the club moved from Memorial Stadium had these injustices rectified at the insistence of Mr. Angelos.

Beyond correcting inherited problems and building a club fans can be proud of, the Orioles, through Mr. Angelos' leadership continue to make substantial contributions to the Maryland community, particularly for children. This past year the Orioles Charitable Foundation contributed to organizations such as The American Cancer Society, The Baltimore Zoo, Boys and Girls Clubs, House with a Heart, The Johns Hopkins Children's Center, The Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, The Kennedy Krieger Institute, and the Special Olympics. In addition, the Orioles were the sponsor of the Baltimore Symphony Gala for the fifth straight year.

In 1998 the Orioles designated Cancer Research and Awareness as the team's community initiative. This initiative was chosen in response to the number of current, future and former Orioles stricken by the disease. Fundraising and cancer awareness events were held throughout the year.

In August, 1997, the Orioles presented the Trust for Public Land with a $100,000 donation as a matching gift to be used toward the renovation of the newly renamed Leon Day Park, (formerly Bloomingdale Oval Park). The funding was used to develop a baseball field at the park.

The Orioles were a major contributor to the Baltimore Bicentennial and for the fourth consecutive year, the sponsor of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra's Fundraising gala.

In 1996, Mr. Angelos made a 1 million dollar contribution to the Babe Ruth Museum Camden Station project that will be the home of a fabulous state of the art Baltimore baseball museum and learning center. The project, which is being guided by the Orioles and the Babe Ruth Museum, will include a turn of the century-style restaurant consistent with the Oriole Park architecture and a museum that will include tributes to the Negro Leagues, Baltimore's 13 professional ballparks, the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame and much more.

Peter Angelos was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he is the President and managing partner of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C. He is a member of the American Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, Maryland State Bar Association, District of Columbia Bar Association, Tennessee Bar Association and the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Angelos, known nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney, is admitted to practice before the courts of Maryland, Federal Courts, District of Columbia, Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, the United States Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Tax Court. In addition, Mr. Angelos has practiced in New York, Tennessee, and before the courts of numerous jurisdictions in the country.

Mr. Angelos has served the community as a member of the Baltimore City Council. He presently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, The John Hopkins University, Western Maryland College, and the University of Baltimore where he also serves on the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law. He also serves on the boards of the University of Maryland Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Saint Joseph's Hospital, the Grant-A-Wish Foundation and University of Maryland Hospital.

He has received Honorary Doctorate Degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the American Academy of Achievement and the Breath of Life Lung Association. Mr. Angelos is the recipiant of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, the Pillar of Sports Advertising Club award, and the AFL-CIO Social Justice award. He was also named Sportsman of the Year in 1995 by the New York Daily News. In 1998, Mr. Angelos was named Marylander of the Year by the Editorial Board of the Baltimore Sun.

He and his wife, the former Georgia Kousouris, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, John and Louis.

TOM CLANCY
VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Tom Clancy's story is a publishing fairy tale come true. His first novel, The Hunt For Red October, published by the Naval Institute Press in hardcover in 1984 sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted onto The New York Times bestseller list. The Hunt for Red October ended up selling over 500,000 copies in hardcover and eight million paperbacks (Berkley Books, 1985). The book has been translated into a number of foreign languages, including French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Chinese, and now Russian.

Mr. Clancy has also written Red Storm Rising, Patriot Games, The Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, and Rainbows. He is presently at work on a new novel.

Prior to writing The Hunt for Red October, Clancy's only literary effort was an article on the MX missile published in the Naval Journal Proceedings. Although he had dreamed of writing a novel since college, Clancy, who majored in English at Baltimore's Loyola College, had always made his living as an insurance agent.

Clancy's The Hunt for Red October, Patriot Games, and Clear and Present Danger were made into movies and were blockbuster box office smashes.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons and government-produced maps, all a tribute to the author's lifelong fascination with technology. Although he devoured military books since childhood, severe myopia prevented Clancy from joining the service, although he did serve in the Army ROTC at Loyola.

Clancy's interest in writing fiction resurfaced in 1976 when he read of the attempt of a Soviet frigate's crew to defect to Sweden. The idea, he says, rattled around his head for years. Finally, he imagined the frigate as a submarine and a novel based on the incident began to take shape. The fledgling author completed his first draft in just over three months.

Although Clancy had never been on a submarine in his life, he boned up on technical knowledge with such books as Combat Fleets of the World and Guide to the Soviet Navy. His grasp of the material was such that everyone from critics to military and intelligence experts hailed The Hunt For Red October for its uncanny verisimilitude.

Despite the astounding publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and that his life hasn't changed all that much. At age 52, Clancy is the father of four.

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY:
BEYOND THE YARD

The 1999 Orioles community relations effort will continue to focus on sports and education while raising money for cancer research and promoting cancer awareness. This season the Orioles are dedicating and naming the community relations initiative "The Joel Stephens Cancer Initiative," named for the Orioles minor league player who died of colon cancer in 1998. Many people within the Orioles family from front office personnel, to current and former players have suffered from this devastating disease.

BEYOND THE YARD
THE 1998 SEASON

CANCER INITIATIVE

For the 1998 season, the team designated cancer research and awareness as its community initiative. The Orioles exhibition game marked the kick-off, and $36,000, a portion of the day's ticket sales, benefited the University of Maryland Greenbaum Cancer Center and the Johns Hopkins Cancer Center. Other activities that played an integral part of this focus included Daffodil Day, American Cancer Society Night at the ballpark, sponsorship of Relay for Life, sponsorship of Baltimore Police Officers in their bike for Leukemia, the Orioles Wives Quilt Raffle, which raised money for breast cancer research, and Eric Davis' Men With Bats fundraiser.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES, INC.

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. strive to support many civic and charitable organizations each year, hoping to enrich the lives of Orioles fans.

Since the current ownership group, headed by Peter Angelos, purchased the Orioles, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation has donated over $1.2 million and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. has donated $2.3 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

RENOVATING FIELDS

Through the Major League Baseball True Value Field of Dreams program, the Saturn-Orioles Field Program and the Orioles sponsorship of the Trust for Public Land's Leon Day park on the Gwynns Falls Trail Project, the Orioles created Fields of Dreams for local children this past season.

TICKET DONATIONS

Many Orioles players made the dream of attending a major league baseball game a reality for thousands of area children. Players purchased tickets so that children from charitable, non-profit youth organizations had the opportunity to take in ball games at Oriole Park.

Some players who have contributed and established programs include: Cal Ripken (Cal's Because We Care Program), Alan Mills (Alan's Team), Mike Mussina (Mooseketeers), Jesse Orosco (Jesse's Kids), and Lenny Webster (Lenny's Little Leaguers).

The Orioles organization also donated more than 3,000 tickets each year to charitable causes. In addition, the Orioles annually host 10,000 safety patrol students from schools throughout the state of Maryland.

ORIOLES APPEARANCES

Orioles heroes past and present took their place in the community and attended more than 225 appearances throughout the region. Clinics, schools, the Babe Ruth Museum, libraries, and Little League organizations benefit through this program. The Orioles Bird mascot also landed at more than 550 appearances all over the region in communities from Norfolk, Virginia to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

THE ORIOLES SUMMER READING PROGRAM

More than 75,000 kids from 20 area counties and the Police Athletic League participated in this year's Orioles Summer Reading program sponsored by the Baltimore Sun. Scott Erickson was this year's spokesperson. The top readers from each county were honored in a pre-game, on-field ceremony at the end of the summer.

PITCH AND HIT CLINICS

Children in the Orioles region learned to play ball courtesy of Coca-Cola and the home team. These clinics taught children ages 6-12 the fine art of pitching and hitting from the pros which include both Orioles players and coaches.

ORIOLES REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Orioles RBI League encourages young adults ages 13-15 to stay in school, develop self-esteem, and enjoy the pleasures of big league baseball. RBI is Baltimore's only citywide league for 13-15 year old boys. In 1998 Coca-Cola co-sponsored the league by making a pledge for each RBI Cal Ripken hit and each strikeout recorded by Mike Mussina.

BALTIMORE BASEBALL LEAGUE

Promoting the childhood pleasure of playing baseball and building better reading skills is the purpose of the Baltimore Baseball League. More than 850 fourth and fifth graders from 46 elementary schools played baseball for the first time. To participate, each student read five books and wrote reports during the season. The league is sponsored by the Orioles, the Abell Foundation, the Macht Foundation, Parks & People and the Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks.

LITTLE LEAGUE PARADE

In May, Kids and coaches braved the rain and paraded around the warning track on the field during the May Little League Day at the Park. The Orioles donated a Mike Mussina signed ball to help raise money for each little league team and kids were given baseball cards as a remembrance of their day at the Yard.

COMMUNITY BOOTH

During each game the Orioles provide a community booth for charitable, non-profit organizations to give out information, sell raffle tickets, register participants or do health care screenings for Orioles fans. Groups that used the booth this season include: Leukemia Society, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Downtown Partnership of Baltimore, Ripken Museum, Babe Ruth Museum, Wellness Community, Glaucoma Research, Oriole Advocates, Migratory Bird Day, American Cancer Society, National Spit Tobacco Education Program, Orioles Wives Quilt Raffle, Reading, Runs and Ripken plus many more.

ORIOLES WIVES ORGANIZATION

The Orioles wives organization worked on three major projects during the O's six month season. They collected over 4 tons of food and $8,000 for the Maryland Food Bank, they raised a total of $49,000 at the golf outing to benefit the Johns Hopkins Children's Center, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Oriole Advocates Charitable Foundation, and they raised over $6,000 for the American Cancer Society Breast Cancer Research during their annual quilt raffle.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate tickets, autographed items, and memorabilia to raise funds for more than 3,000 charitable organizations, schools, and civic groups each season.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball from Oriole Park at Camden Yards." His house is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. Among this year's highlights is an exhibit, opening in May, which chronicles Cal Ripken's consecutive games streak. The popular "Second Saturday" program, held the second Saturday of each month beginning at 11 a.m., this year will feature special guest speakers on such topics as scouting, the Negro Leagues, women in baseball, umpiring, the minor leagues and baseball films. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future major league players during the season.

Striving to exhibit its growing collections, the Museum plans to expand into a second facility: Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos has donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station will feature man y displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children's learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum will continue to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites.

For museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539.

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER

Born: June 22, 1956
Rudy begins his 3rd season with the Orioles. In addition to pitching batting practice, the former minor league catcher also charts pitches during home games and operates the radar gun that gives fans the type and speed of each pitch. Before joining the Orioles, Rudy served as bullpen catcher for the New York Yankees from 1993 to 1996.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, Arias grew up in Miami. He was drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 1st round (secondary phase) in 1977 and spent four years in their farm system. In his first pro season, with Rookie level Bellingham (WA), he was named catcher on the Northwest League All-Star team. He spent the next two seasons in the Class A California League, with Stockton and San Jose. His career stalled when he was hit by a ball and suffered a broken jaw in 1980, and the Mariners assigned his contract to Vera Cruz of the Mexican League, where he played in 1981-82. He later played in both Columbia and Mexico, including a two-year stint as manager of the Monteria club in the Columbian Winter League.

His father, Rudy Arias Sr., pitched professionally for 17 years and went 2-0 in 34 games for the American League champion Chicago White Sox in 1959.

Rudy and his wife, Hilda, were married December 6, 1982. They have two sons, Louis (9/27/83) and Alex (8/30/88) and live in Miami.

ERICKSON'S NO-HITTER

On April 27, 1994, Scott became the third Twins hurler to pitch a nine-inning no-hitter and just the second (Jack Kralick 8/26/62) to throw a scoreless nine-inning game with no hits (Dean Chance no-hit the Indians on 8/25/67 but won 2-1), when he beat Milwaukee 6-0 in Minnesota. He faced 31 batters retiring 15 on ground balls (1 GIDP), five on fly balls, five on strikeouts and one on a lineout, including four walks and one hit batter. He threw 129 pitches, 71 for strikes. It was the second of three no-hitters during the '94 season: Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers on April 8 while with Atlanta and Texas' Kenny Rogers tossed a perfect game vs California on July 28. It was the first no-hitter in the 13-year history of the Metrodome and just the second time a pitcher carried a no-hitter into the ninth inning in the Metrodome (Baltimore's Eric Bell went eight innings plus a batter in the 9th on 5/5/87). It was the 11th no-hitter in a domed stadium and just the fourth indoor no-hitter in the AL (two at Seattle Kingdome and one at Toronto Skydome).

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

• Holds major league record for home runs by a shortstop with 345

• Holds the major league record for most years leading league in games, by a shortstop with 12.

• Holds major league record for most consecutive games by a shortstop, 2216.

• Holds major league record for most years playing all of clubs games (15) and most years leading league in games (9).

MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP

All-time Leader: Has hit 345 of his 384 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Ernie Banks (277). Passed Banks 7/15/93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Minnesota's Scott Erickson. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to first base from shortstop in '62. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.

30 Homers: Is one of six shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, along with Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens, Rico Petrocelli, Alex Rodriguez and Nomar Garciaparra.

EXTRA-BASE HITS BY A SHORTSTOP

Passing Honus and Joe: 855 of his 972 extra-base hits have come as a shortstop, the highest total in baseball history, as near as we can tell. Honus Wagner had 737 in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh), and Joe Cronin had 765 in the years he was primarily a shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston). A precise statistical breakout is not available, however.

Recalling 1991: His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been exceeded by only two other shortstops in history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82 and Alex Rodriguez with 91 in '96...Nomar Garciaparra also had 85 in '97...Cal's 368 total bases were the most in one season by an AL shortstop until '96 when Seattle's Rodriguez matched Banks' all-time mark of 379...Rodriguez set a new ML mark for TB by a shortstop in '98 with 384...Also Cal is one of four shortstops (joining Banks in '58 and '59, Rodriguez in '96 and '98, and Garciaparra in '98) to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI.

ALL-STAR GAMES

16-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken's 16 games are all consecutive, 14 were at shortstop with the last two being at 3rd base...Ozzie Smith, named in '96 for the 15th time, is the major league leader among shortstops, one ahead of Cal...The previous AL mark (10) belonged to former Oriole Luis Aparicio. Only Brooks Robinson (AL record 18 games in 15 straight years, '60-'74) has represented the Orioles at more All-Star Games. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season, '82.
ELECTED: 14 times, 10 consecutive starting in '89. Was also elected '84 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in '88 (but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place). Since balloting returned to the fans in '70, ten different Orioles have been elected to start 30 times in the 29 years. In '98 the Orioles had two starters in the game played in Colorado with Cal and 2B Roberto Alomar starting and 1B Rafael Palmeiro added to replace the injured Mo Vaughn.
STARTER: 15 straight years (starting '84), 13 as a shortstop. Cal's 15th straight start set an All-Star Game record, breaking Willie Mays' mark of 14 straight ASG starts.
FAN BALLOTTING: Has led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524)...Cal led the AL in balloting in 1986 (1,486,806).

THE GAMES

1998: Record setting 15th straight start, 2nd at 3B...Went 1-for-4 with a 2-run double at Coors Field in Colorado...Teammate Roberto Alomar was named MVP.

1997: Started his 14th straight All-Star Game, 1st as a third baseman...Went 1-2 in AL victory at Jacobs Field.

1995: At the Mid-Summer Classic in Arlington, TX, Cal went 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully, just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with two groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in three trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

MVP 1991: Became the fourth of five Orioles to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on 7/9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the eventual Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66), Frank ('71) and Roberto Alomar ('98)...Cal became only the third AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 5-1/2 seasons (7/11/87 through '92), and Bill was with the Orioles in a utility role in 1996...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr. became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season)...In addition to younger brother Bill, Cal has another brother, Fred, and a sister, Ellen Leigh...Cal's mother is named Vi.

FATHER: Cal Sr. spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach. He joined the staff in '76. Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization. His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league...Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history...Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history. Was replaced by Frank Robinson on 4/12/88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60...He became a player-manager the following year...In '96 he was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame.

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in '90 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee...On 6/15/89, vs. New York, the two Ripkens teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

Both homered: On 9/15/90 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered...They matched the feat on 5/28/96 at Seattle and Cal homered three times in that game...They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it 9/14/74.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways, including the establishment of The Kelly and Cal Ripken, Jr. Foundation which primarily supports community adult and family literacy, youth recreational and health-related programs in the greater Baltimore area. The Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center: In 1988, Cal and his wife, Kelly, made a financial contribution in helping to establish The Ripken Learning Center, an adult and family literacy program, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc. The program is supportive of Mayor Kurt L. Schmoke's "The City That Reads" initiative. The Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center is a full service model adult literacy program providing instruction in reading, math, writing and computer training and basic life skills, counseling and job readiness to over 300 city adults a year. Since inception, Cal and Kelly have contributed or helped raise over $1 million for the Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center. This includes the November '91 Winterfest for Literacy and the annual Reading, Runs and Ripken program. Winterfest for Literacy: A sports memorabilia show in Baltimore hosted by Cal that featured Cal, Sr., Bill Ripken, Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer and Brooks Robinson. Also in '91, Cal, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc., introduced the Reading, Runs and Ripken program. This is an annual fundraising program for Baltimore Reads, Inc. in which individuals and businesses make pledges based on the number of RBIs Cal has during a season. In addition, the Foundation donated $250,000 to other literacy programs with Cal's '97 The Only Way I Know nationwide book tour. Baltimore School for the Arts: Kelly and the Foundation continue to host and support the school's annual presentation of the Nutcracker ballet. Because We Care: Cal, through the Foundation, continues to donate tickets to every Orioles home game, a program he and Eddie Murray initiated in the mid-1980s. Kelly G. Ripken Program: In '98, the Foundation made a $250,000 donation to establish the Kelly G. Ripken Program, a resource for thyroid education and patient care at Johns Hopkins. Sam Hulett Fund: In '92, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 to the Johns Hopkins Children's Center towards the establishment of the Sam Hulett Fund in memory of the son of Orioles infielder Tim Hulett. Cal has participated in Pam Shriver's Tennis Challenge in '90, '93 and '95. The Challenge benefits the Baltimore Community Foundation. He continues to support the Tennis Challenge with contributions to their annual silent auction. Cal takes part in the Orioles annual off-season FanFest.

2131: PASSING A LEGEND
FACTS & FIGURES ABOUT LOU GEHRIG'S AND CAL RIPKEN'S STREAKS

• On 8/17/33, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.

• Ripken's streak began on 5/30/82 when manager Earl Weaver started Cal as the third baseman against Toronto at Memorial Stadium...The day before, Floyd Rayford started in Cal's place at third base in the second game of a DH.

• Gehrig holds the major league record for most home runs by a first baseman (493). Ripken holds the record for most home runs by a shortstop (353).

• Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career ('31). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from '82-'87.

• Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: '25 (7/5, the 33rd game of the streak and 7/19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

• Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and listed as the shortstop in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.

• In the last 100 games of his streak, Gehrig batted .287 (106-369) with 67 runs, 15 doubles, four triples, 16 homers and 82 RBI. In his last 25 games, Gehrig batted .350 (36-103) with 23 runs, eight doubles, three triples, eight homers and 34 RBI.

- First player in modern era to hit four homers in game (6/3/32, consecutive)
- Most career grand slams (23)
- Most consecutive years with 100 RBI's (13, tied with Jimmie Foxx)

Three times by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the two games from which he was ejected in the first inning: 9/25/87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and 8/7/89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota)...In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call...He was ejected a third time on 7/20/97 in the 2nd inning by Al Clark (vs. Chicago) also for arguing a third strike call.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The three longest Orioles streaks before Cal's were:

	Brooks Robinson	463
	Eddie Murray	444
	Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of seven Orioles to have played every game in a season.

Cal Ripken	15 Times	'83 thru '97
Brooks Robinson	4 Times	'61, '62, '64, '68
Eddie Murray	4 Times	'78, '79, '84, '88
Billy Gardner	Once	'57
Bobby Grich	Once	'73
Rafael Palmeiro	Once	'98
B.J. Surhoff	Once	'98

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The post-season innings he played in '83,'96, and '97 are not included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began 6/5/82; six days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string 5/30.

The finish: The innings streak ended 9/14/87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto walkover...That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs...Rip, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least three years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

CLOSE CALLS

April 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained left ankle at shortstop during a pickoff play in the third inning vs. Texas (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...Didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs. Toronto.

September 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993...Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later, "It was the closest I've come to not playing." (6/4).

August 2, 1997...Game 2423...Considered leaving the game in the bottom of the 1st at Oakland with lower back pain when Athletics' Scott Brosius led off the inning with a single on a swinging bunt roller...He remained in the game and singled in his next at-bat and homered the next day as the back steadily improved.

BULLISH ON CAL

Cal's streak spanned 17 seasons. Over that time, the leading index of the New York Stock Exchange, the Dow Jones Average, rose more than 7,000 points, from 819.54 to 7,895.66.

1998
YEAR IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW
THE ORIOLES IN 1998

IN LIKE A LION, OUT LIKE A LAMB: After losing the season-opener under new manager Ray Miller, the Orioles ran off seven straight wins and won 10 of 11 games. They were 10-2 and in 1st place in the American League East in mid-April. The O's then went 4-11 over the last half of April and 24-37 over the next two months.

SECOND-HALF SURGE: The Orioles entered the All-Star break with a 38-50 record and in 4th place in the A.L. East, 26½ GB behind the division-leading New York Yankees and 15½ GB the wild-card leading Boston Red Sox. The second half opened with a four-game sweep of the Bosox, which turned into a 9-game winning streak. The Orioles went on to win 14 of 15 and were 30-8 in the second half as of August 19, the best post-All-Star Game record in the majors to that point, and had moved as close as 6 ½ games behind Boston for the wild card spot...The O's still were within 6½ games of the wild card spot as late as September 14. But they lost their next four games, including a two-game set vs. Boston, and were eliminated from the wild card race on September 20.

STREAKY: The Orioles had four streaks of 8 games or more – but three of them were losing streaks. They won 9 straight after the All-Star break, the 16th in club history of 9 or more games and the longest since they won 10 straight June 2-12, 1993. They also suffered losing streaks of 8, 9 and 10 games. Their 9-game losing streak occurred in mid-May and dropped them into last place in the A.L. East. After moving back to 3rd place, they lost 8 straight games in late June and fell to 4th place. Finally, after battling to get back into wild card contention after the All-Star break, the Orioles lost 10 straight games, August 23-September 2, and settled into 4th place in the A.L. East. It was the 6th losing streak of 10 or more games in club history and the longest since the 1988 O's opened the season 0-21.

A SHORT-LIVED LEAD: The Orioles led or held a share of the lead in the A.L. East for 17 days, April 3-19. Their biggest lead was 2½ games, last coming on April 14.

THE EL NINO EFFECT: For the first time in club history, the Orioles did not have a game postponed at home or on the road. In fact, the O's experienced only 7 rain delays all season, all of them at home. In 1995, the Orioles experienced only one rainout (at Boston). It was only the 4th time the Orioles did not have a home game postponed ('54, '77, '95 and '98).

ATTENDANCE: The 1998 Orioles drew 3,685,194 for 81 home dates, the second highest total in franchise history and most in the American League for the fourth straight season. The total was only 25,938 fewer than attended O's games in 1997, when the club set the franchise record with 3,711,132. The O's were one of two A.L. and seven major league teams to top the 3 million mark in 1998, finishing second in the majors to the Colorado Rockies (3,789,347) for the fourth straight season. The Orioles average of 45,496 fans per game also was second in the majors to the Rockies (46,782). The Orioles recorded 38 sellouts in 1998. They drew 13 of the 14 largest single game crowds ever to watch regular season games at Oriole Park, including the top four. The largest crowd was 48,374 for the August 23 game vs. Cleveland. They also set marks for largest three-game and four-game series. They drew 144,784 for a three-date series with the Indians August 21-23. The top four-date series came July 9-12, when 192,494 attended the Boston series.

NUMBER OF PLAYERS: The Orioles used 48 different players in 1998, matching the 2nd highest total in club history. The O's used 54 players in 1955 and 48 players in 1956. The 22 pitchers used were one short of the club record of 23 used in '55, '56 & '95. Included in the mix were 21 players making their first appearance in an Orioles uniform. The Orioles have now had 633 different players in their 45-year history.

BATTING: Oriole batters hit .273 for the season, 5th best in the A.L. and their highest since finishing 3rd in batting in 1973. The O's scored 817 runs (7th) and hit 214 HR (3rd), topping their 1997 totals in all three categories (.268, 812, 196)...Before the All-Star break, the O's hit .269 and averaged 4.8 runs per game; after the break, they hit .277 and averaged 5.3 RPG.

ALL THOSE HOMERS: The 214 home runs matched the 1985 Orioles for the 2nd highest total in club history. Only the then-major league record 257 by the '96 O's is higher. The '87 O's hit 211 HR, the only other time the club has topped 200 in a season...Consecutive Games: Twice in 1998, the Orioles broke the club record for homering in consecutive games. They homered in 19 straight games from April 27 through May 17, then went deep in 20 straight games from July 16 through August 9. The club record coming into the season was 17 straight games with a homer, accomplished in 1994 and 1997.

DH IMPROVEMENT: Led by Harold Baines and Eric Davis, Orioles designated hitters topped the A.L. with a .308 batting average and had 24 HR and 109 RBI...In 1997, O's DHs batted just .250 with 70 RBI.

HIS POSITION IS HITTER: Harold Baines became the all-time leader in RBI by a designated hitter, finishing the season with 837, topping Hal McRae's record of 823. Baines is 2nd all-time in games (1,411 to McRae's 1,428) and home runs (199 to Don Baylor's 219) by a DH. Baines signed a contract for the 1999 season on September 4.

THE HITS JUST KEPT ON COMING: Eric Davis set a club record when he hit in 30 consecutive games, July 12-August 15. It is only the 36th hitting streak of 30 or more games in major league history and topped the previous club mark of 24 games held by Rafael Palmeiro. Davis finished 4th in the A.L. batting race with a .327 average, the 3rd highest single-season average in club history. Davis was only the 4th Oriole to finish in the top five.

PITCHING: The Orioles finished 7th in the A.L. with a 4.74 ERA. They allowed 785 runs, 104 more than in 1997. O's pitchers allowed only 31 unearned runs, fewest in the majors...Starters: Oriole starters went 29-37 with a 5.37 ERA before the break. In the 2nd half, they went 27-27 with a 4.30 ERA...Relievers: Before the break, the bullpen was 9-13 with a 4.78 ERA and converted 18 of 29 saves. After the break, relievers were 14-6 with a 4.00 ERA and 19-for-26 in saves.

LOST—ONE PITCHING ROTATION: The Orioles starting rotation on Opening Day – Mike Mussina, Scott Erickson, Jimmy Key, Scott Kamieniecki and Doug Drabek – was together on the roster for only 31 days all season and missed a total of 37 starts while on the disabled list. Mussina was on the D.L. twice, Key and Drabek once each and Kamieniecki (three times) was disabled in all 6 calendar months of the season.

THE DEPENDABLE DR. DEATH: RHP Scott Erickson led the A.L. with 36 starts, 11 complete games and 251.1 IP, the 1st Oriole to lead the league in any of those categories since Dennis Martinez paced the A.L. in all three in 1979. Erickson was the only O's pitcher not to miss a start, and became only the 4th Oriole in the last 16 seasons to make 36 starts.

ALMOST PERFECT AGAIN: On August 4 vs. Detroit, Mike Mussina came within four outs of a perfect game – the second time in as many seasons he's flirted with perfection. Mussina retired the first 23 batters before Frank Catalonatto doubled to right with 2 outs in the 8th. Moose settled for a 2-hit, 4-0 shutout. On May 30, 1997, Mussina retired the first 25 Cleveland Indians batters he faced before Sandy Alomar singled to left, leaving him a one-hit, 3-0 shutout.

ROOKIES TO THE RESCUE: The multiple injuries to the rotation forced the Orioles to start rookie hurlers in back-to-back games for the 1st time since September 1995, when Jimmy Haynes and Rick Krivda made consecutive starts on 3 occasions. When RHPs Nerio Rodriguez and Sidney Ponson started at Chicago on April 28 & 29, it was the 1st time Oriole rookies had started back-to back in April since 1989, when Pete Harnisch and Bob Milacki were in the rotation.

THE CY OF RELIEF: On July 25, LHP Jesse Orosco became only the 6th pitcher ever to appear in 1,000 games, and 13 days later pitched in his 1,000th game in relief. He finished the season with 1,025 appearances, 4th all-time, and was second to Kent Tekulve with 1,021 career relief appearances.

FIELDING: The Orioles set a major league record, committing only 81 errors, and went on to lead the majors and set a club record with a .987 fielding percentage. It was the 3rd time in the last five seasons the O's have led the majors in fielding. The previous record for fewest errors in a season was 84 by the 1988 Minnesota Twins. The old club record was 87, set in 1989. Cal Ripken led A.L. 3Bs with a .979 fielding percentage and Chris Hoiles was the top-fielding catcher at .995.

GOLD IN THEM THAR GLOVES: The Orioles were the only team in the majors with three players to earn a Gold Glove Award. Mike Mussina was honored for the third straight season, Rafael Palmeiro for the second straight and Roberto Alomar for the seventh time in his career. It was the 1st time the Orioles had three Gold Glove winners since 1976.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH: 2B Roberto Alomar became the fifth Oriole named All-Star Game MVP when he went 3-for-4 with a home run and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win over the National League at Colorado's Coors Field on July 7. Alomar was one of three Orioles on the A.L. squad who combined for the most hits by teammates in the mid-summer classic since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976. 3B Cal Ripken went 1-for-4 with a 2-run double in his 16th All-Star start and 17th appearance and 1B Rafael Palmeiro, named as a reserve, went 2-for-2 with a RBI.

THE END OF THE STREAK: Cal Ripken ended his world-record consecutive games streak in the Orioles' final home game of the season, sitting out against the Yankees on September 20 after starting 2,632 straight games.

BUT ERNIE'S IS STILL ALIVE: Umpires attendant Ernie Tyler worked his 3,000th consecutive regular season home game on April 4. His streak was still intact on September 20, when he worked his 3,076th straight game to finish the season.

 Tie games: The Orioles have played 10 tie games, all in Baltimore (one each in '96 and '82, and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect.*

Tie games were played against: Chicago-4, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1,New York-1, Oakland-1 and Texas-1

The organization's Player of the Year was AA Bowie 1B Calvin Pickering, who batted .309 with 31 home runs and 114 RBI. The organization's Pitcher of the Year was right-hander Gabe Molina, who went 3-2 with a 3.36 ERA and 24 saves at AA Bowie.

ROCHESTER (AAA)

The Red Wings went 70-74 in 1998 and finished in fourth place in the North Division of the International League, 11.5 games behind Buffalo. It was the first time since 1994 that Rochester finished with a losing record and did not make the playoffs. The Red Wings won 8 of their final 10 games, however, to reach the 70-win plateau for the 12th time in the last 13 seasons. Danny Clyburn missed the first two months of the season, but batted .286 with 14 homers and 54 RBI in 84 games. Willis Otanez was one of the IL's top hitters in 1998, batting .285 with 27 home runs and 100 RBI. Terry Burrows went 9-6 and led the league with a 2.96 ERA. Rocky Coppinger went 8-3 with the Red Wings and had a 6-game winning streak late in the season. Chris Fussell went 5-2 with a 3.99 ERA in 10 starts to earn a September promotion to the Orioles. Baseball America named Rochester as best minor league city in baseball, based on success, tradition, continuity, history, fan support and media coverage.

BOWIE (AA)

The Baysox went 71-71 and finished in fourth place in the Southern Division of the Eastern League last season, 10.5 games behind Akron. Calvin Pickering had one of the best seasons in Orioles' minor league history, batting .309 and leading the league in home runs (31), RBI (114), on-base percentage (.434) and slugging percentage (.566). Jerry Hairston joined the Baysox at midseason and hit safely in his first 16 games and batted .326 with 20 extra-base hits at Double-A. Ryan Minor was second on the team with 17 home runs and 71 RBI, and was named as the EL's Best Defensive Third Baseman and Best Infield Arm by Baseball America. Gabe Molina was third in the league and set a Baysox franchise record with 24 saves. Rich Kelley appeared in 18 games and went 8-2 with a 3.71 ERA.

FREDERICK (A)

The Keys went a combined 64-76 in 1998, 35-35 in the Carolina League's first half and 29-41 in the second half. Frederick finished the first half with three pitchers in the top eight in the league in ERA. Josh McNatt headed up the staff with an 11-8 record and 3.15 ERA. Tim DeCinces was the Keys' top hitter in the second half, batting .278 with 14 home runs and 40 RBI. Frederick featured a league-high six players on the Carolina League All-Star team - McNatt, Chris Bryant, Josh Towers, Ivanon Coffie, Jerry Hairston and Chip Alley.

DELMARVA (A)

The Shorebirds went 81-61 in 1998, the best record of any Orioles farm team, and made the playoffs for the third consecutive season. They were swept in the first round of the SAL playoffs by Hagerstown, 2-0. Delmarva led the league in attendance for the third straight year. Matt Riley emerged as one of the organization's top prospects after joining the Shorebirds in June, as he went 5-4 with a 1.19 ERA (83.0 IP, 42 H, 136 K). Jay Spurgeon won his last eight decisions and went 11-3 with a 2.64 ERA. Derek Brown saved 33 games, most by an Orioles' minor league pitcher, and was named SAL's Best Reliever by Baseball America. The Shorebirds also featured the Orioles' two first-round selections in the 1997 draft, Jayson Werth and Darnell McDonald. Werth batted .265 and threw out 39% of attempted basestealers, while McDonald stole 35 bases and tied a club record with a 14-game hitting streak.

BLUEFIELD (ROOKIE)

Bluefield went 33-34 and finished in second place of the East Division of the Appalachian League in 1998, 4.5 games behind Princeton. The Orioles second-place finish snapped their two-year reign as Appy League champions. Ntema Ndungidi finished the year strongly batting .295 with 7 home runs and 35 RBI. GRAND SLAM NOTES

ORIOLES LEAD MAJORS SINCE '80: The Orioles have belted 97 grand slams starting in 1980, more than any other team...Boston is next with 83, followed by Seattle with 78.

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 184-123, over the last 45 years (including post-season)...They have a 98-56 advantage in Baltimore, 23-15 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987.

TWO IN ONE GAME: Chris Hoiles last year became the 3rd Oriole and only the 9th major leaguer to hit 2 grand slams in one game when he connected for a pair on Aug. 14, 1998 in Cleveland. Hoiles' slams came in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 26, 1970.

GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87.

POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history.

OPPONENTS: The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Ken Griffey Jr. last year became the 10th opposing player to have hit 2 career grand slams against the Orioles...Griffey and Edgar Martinez are the only active players with 2 slams...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955).

GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most an any O's hurler. Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career grand slams allowed...Dave McNally and Scott McGregor are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current O's hurlers, Mike Mussina has given up 3 slams...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 14 seasons, Oriole pitchers had produced 24 20-win seasons in the past 31 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (14), Yankees (12), White Sox (11) and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major lealgue record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20 + in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On Aug 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret.

Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, Aug 21, '76.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 16 in 45 seasons.

The last triple play pulled by the Orioles came August 25, '92 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent TP involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

In 1998, the Orioles were the only team in the majors with three players to earn a Gold Glove Award...Mike Mussina won his third straight and Rafael Palmeiro and Roberto Alomar each won Gold Gloves as well, marking the first time the Orioles had three Gold Glove winners since 1976...The Orioles have now won 7 Gold Gloves in the last three seasons after earning only two in the previous 11 years...The Orioles have won a total of 57 Gold Gloves, most among AL teams since the award was created...Only one ML team, St. Louis, has won more Gold Glove awards than the O's (57 1/2):

Cardinals-57 1/2, ORIOLES 57, Yankees 48, Pirates & Reds 44, Red Sox, Tigers & White Sox 34, Phillies 33, Braves, Cubs & Giants 31, Dodgers 30 1/2, Twins 28, Angels 26, Indians & Rangers 21, Expos 20, Blue Jays & Padres 17, Astros, Royals & Mariners 16, A's 14, Mets 11 1/2, Brewers 9, Marlins 3 1/2, Rockies 2.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each; Ozzie Smith won 11)...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Davey Johnson, Eddie Murray & Mike Mussina (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each, although Aparicio won a total of 9 in his ML career and Alomar has won 7).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54 -'98

The Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc. In 1998, first baseman Rafael Palmeiro was voted winner for the third time in four years, joining Eddie Murray (7) Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4) and Frank Robinson (3) as the only players to win the award more than twice. A total of 27 different Orioles have been honored in the club's 45 seasons (no award was given in 1994). Palmeiro also won the award in 1995 and 1996.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO award when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years.

The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

Winners by position: outfielders-14; first basemen-14; pitchers-9; third basemen-4; shortstops-4; catchers-2; and second basemen-1.

ALL-STAR NOTES

THREE PLAYERS, SIX HITS: The Orioles had three representatives in the 1998 All-Star Game played at Coors Field in Denver: starters Roberto Alomar at 2B and Cal Ripken at 3B, and reserve 1B Rafael Palmeiro...Alomar went 3-for-4 with a HR and stolen base and was named MVP in the American League's 13-8 win over the National League...The three O's combined for 6 hits, most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976...Ripken went 1-for-4 with a 2-run double in his 16th All-Star start and 17th appearance and Palmeiro went 2-for-2 with an RBI in his 2nd appearance.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Ten different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken has started the last 15 years, 14 of those by fan vote...Last year was his second start at 3B...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy and Brady Anderson (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: Roberto Alomar's 1998 All-Star MVP award was the 5th won by an Oriole player. The others:

Cal Ripken won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's 1st All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the 1st player from a losing team to be so honored.

Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Roberto Alomar's home run last year was the 5th by an Oriole in All-Star play, joining Cal Ripken (7/9/91 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on), Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th mid-season classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993.

On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game.

In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever "All-Star Week," including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game.

FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration. Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post-season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the first time they've made back-to-back post-season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series. In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1 in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS. In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the Oakland A's, with 23 wins, have won more games in League Championship Series play...The Los Angeles Dodgers are third with 19 wins.

The O's won the 1st 10 ALCS games they played (including the 1st 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the 1st 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST-SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post-season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post-season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post-season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808).

The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79...The four largest crowds for any games at Camden Yards came in the 1997 post-season, topped by the 49,137 who attended Division Series Game 1 vs. Seattle on October 4.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Oriole personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles and must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at lest one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Herbert E. Armstrong Award: The Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee also selects winners of the Herbert E. Armstrong Award, presented annually to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in their service to the Orioles. The Armstrong Award was established in 1995 in honor of the beloved former educator, professional baseball player and manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs, who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown.

MURRAY, CASHEN ARE 1999 ELECTEES TO O'S HALL

Eddie Murray, a six-time Most Valuable Oriole and one of three major leaguers to amass more than 3,000 hits and 500 home runs, and former general manager Frank Cashen, whose 10 years with the club included the team's first six trips to the post-season, are the newest elected members of the Orioles Hall of Fame. Murray was elected through a vote of the Hall of Fame Committee and its 80 electors, while Cashen received the Herbert E. Armstrong Award for non-uniformed personnel in a vote of the Hall's veterans committee.

Murray, currently an Orioles coach, batted .294 and hit 343 homers during 12 ½ seasons with the Orioles in a 21-year career. His biography is on Page 25. Cashen, a native Baltimorean who began his career as a sportswriter, joined the Orioles front office following the 1965 season and oversaw the business and baseball sides as executive vice president and general manager before moving on to the Commissioner's Office and then the New York Mets.

The election of Murray and Cashen bring Orioles Hall of Fame membership to 38 people:

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Lee MacPhail's election to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Veteran's Committee in 1998 brought to 10 the number of modern Orioles who have been enshrined at Cooperstown. During his long and meritorious career in baseball, MacPhail served as general manager and later president and GM of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. He later served as president of the American League.

There are four modern Orioles enshrined in the Hall of Fame wearing Oriole hats for their official busts/portraits: Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, and Brooks and Frank Robinson. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for their biographies and statistics.)

Palmer, the Robinsons and Reggie Jackson all were selected in their first year of eligibility for the Hall. They are 4 of only 29 first-ballot electees among the 240 Hall of Fame members (not including this year's Veteran's committee vote). Palmer poled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in 1990, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole.

Another beloved Oriole was honored by the Hall of Fame in 1993 when veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson was the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, long-time sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing.

In addition, there are six members of the 1890s Orioles juggernaut immortalized in the Hall of Fame.

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock; and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 4 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton), who was elected in 1995.

THE HISTORY OF THE ORIOLES

What do Black Sox, Elite Giants, Marylands, Monumentals, Orioles and Terrapins all have in common? They're all nicknames for professional baseball teams that have played in the city of Baltimore, dating back to the game's 19th century roots.

Baltimore first experienced professional baseball in 1872, when the Lord Baltimores played their inaugural games in the old National Association. Ten years later, another incarnation of the Lord Baltimores made its debut in the American Association; one year after that, the franchise adopted the name "Orioles," honoring Maryland's state bird. It was the first time the nickname would become affiliated with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

In 1884, the Orioles encountered some intra-city competition when the Baltimore Monumentals became one of the charter franchises in the new Union Association. By mid-season, the Monumentals had transferred to Lancaster; and by the end of one year, the new league was done.

Although both the American and National Associations have come to be regarded as major league by baseball historians, Baltimore stepped up a notch further when it joined the National League in 1892. Spearheaded by the skilled batting of Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler, and the scrappy play of Hughie Jennings and John McGraw, the Orioles of the 1890s played an aggressive, fire-breathing kind of baseball never seen before. Under the direction of the innovative Ned Hanlon, the Orioles won three consecutive National League pennants from 1894 to 1896.

In spite of their success, Baltimore's National League franchise lasted for only eight seasons, folding after the 1899 campaign. Within two years, Baltimore baseball found a new home—in the upstart American League. Once again adopting the nickname Orioles, the franchise played for two seasons before relocating to New York. First playing as the Highlanders, the former Baltimore club eventually became the New York Yankees.

The transfer of the franchise to New York left Baltimore without a major league team until 1914. The Baltimore Terrapins, named for the varieties of edible turtles common to the state of Maryland, entered the newly-formed Federal League that season. Alas, the league, and its franchises, lasted just the one year. Baltimore would not enjoy major league baseball for another four decades.

Yet, professional baseball did not completely abandon Baltimore. Minor league entries, still playing under the popular name of Orioles, thrived in the Eastern League (1903-11) and the International League (1912-53). During the early years of Baltimore's existence in the International League, a young left-handed pitcher named Babe Ruth starred for the team. Ruth split the 1914 season between Baltimore and Providence, winning a combined 22 games and losing only nine.

From the 1920s through the 1940s, area baseball fans also enjoyed the exploits of the city's two Negro League teams, the Black Sox and Elite Giants. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants—on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

In September of 1953, Bill Veeck's financial problems helped Baltimore land another major league team. Veeck sold his American League franchise, the St. Louis Browns, to a Baltimore-based syndicate headed by Mayor Tommy D' Alesandro and attorney Clarence Miles. Playing in the renovated Memorial Stadium, the new Orioles made their return to the American League in 1954.

In the late 1950s, the Orioles' farm system began to produce a bevy of talent, led by future Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. With a young nucleus in place, the Orioles sought veteran assistance to complete their championship puzzle. After the 1965 season, the Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds. Led by Robinson's Triple Crown season, the slugging of young first baseman Boog Powell, and the terrific bullpen combination of Moe Drabowsky, Eddie Fisher and Stu Miller, the 1966 Orioles won the first World Series in the franchise's history.

The Orioles returned to American League dominance three years later, with Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver now leading the charge. Pitching, three-run homers, and outstanding defensive play stamped Weaver's Orioles as winners. From 1969 to 1971, the O's captured three American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, where Brooks Robinson compiled a highlight reel's worth of defensive brilliance. After some lean years in the middle of the decade, the Orioles returned to glory in 1979, when they extended the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven games before losing the World Series. Four years later, with a new generation of stars headed up Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr., the Orioles won their third world championship—four games to one against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The endurance and excellence of Ripken served as a hallmark for much of the 1980s and 90s, culminating in the breaking of a baseball legend's record. On the night of September 6, 1995, Ripken played in his 2,131st consecutive game, eclipsing the mark of Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The 1990s also saw the Orioles move into a new era, as they departed Memorial Stadium for a ballpark considered a state-of-the-art model for all new stadium projects—Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 18th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in this century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as 1st base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 A.L. East titles, 4 A.L. pennants and 1 World Series, beating the Cincinatti Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended 1-game shy of another A.L. East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his year 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Hialeah, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the A.L. Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (his 1st year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games and is the Orioles' all-time leader in games, at bats, hits, and triples, and is second in runs, doubles, total bases, RBI and extra base hits. In addition to his A.L. MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an A.L. player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 10th on the all-time list of games played, 3rd in the A.L. and 4th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 4th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the A.L. and World Series MVP in his 1st season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the 1st to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was N.L. Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 N.L., '66 A.L.). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the 1st year he was eligible in 1982, Frank serves as a special assistant in the commissioner's office and is in charge of the Arizona Fall League. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

OK, SO WE REPEATED IT...

The Orioles drew more than 3 million fans and finished below .500 for the second time in history in 1998. The Los Angeles Dodgers are the only other franchise to do that, and they also did it twice. The '98 Orioles drew 3,685,194 fans for 81 home dates while finishing with a 79-83 record. The Orioles went 71-73 and drew 3,098, 475 in only 72 home dates in 1995. The 1984 Dodgers (79-83) drew 3,134,824 fans and the 1986 Dodgers (73-89) drew 3,023,208 fans.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won 3 Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season 8 times, one of only 6 who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to do that. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles 1st 4 pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a 6-time All-Star and was the A.L.'s starting pitcher 4 times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the 1st ballot in January, 1990. He is in his 6th season as an analyst and play-by-play broadcaster for Home Team Sports, the Orioles' cable broadcast partner, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim and his wife, Joni, live in the Northern Baltimore County suburb of Brooklandville. He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,876 (including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray: Rummel, Klepper and Kahl: and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Four public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Official Orioles Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), a bar/lounge (Bambino's) and Gallery E at the Warehouse, a sports-themed art gallery opened this winter- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of theOrioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw St.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Mezzanine or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club restaurant.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis from $75,000 to $175,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1850 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots in walking distance to the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance our fans' experience at the ballpark...

• This past off-season an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.

• IN a project that will last into the 1999 season, the Orioles offices, located in the B & O Warehouse, are undergoing major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look.

• Davidsonville, MD based Homestead Gardens entered into a partnership with the Orioles to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.

• During the '97 & '98 off-seasons, the Club Level and Suites underwent a complete refurbishing that included new furniture, wallpaper, and carpeting.

• On Eutaw Street, brass baseball plates were embedded into the sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.

• The Orioles Hall of Fame is located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard...The wall holds plaques, similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown...The plaques feature the Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.

• Also noteworthy, 1993 marked the first time smoking at Orioles home games was designated to specific areas...Smoking was banned from the seating bowl, but permitted on the concourses on all levels.

• The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, located at the south end of Eutaw Street...This display honors native Marylanders representing 27 different sports...Plaques have been mounted on Eutaw Street in honor of these selected athletes...The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.

• As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame plaques were mounted on Eutaw Street.

• In honor of Cal's historic homer the Orioles have marked where the ball has landed...On July 15, 1993 at Oriole Park, Cal Ripken hit his 278th homer, most ever hit by a major league shortstop, surpassing Ernie Banks's previous major league record of 277...Cal's home run was hit off then Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the 6th inning of the Orioles 5-3 win...The home run landed in the left field lower obx seats and a red seat marks the spot.

• In honor of Eddie Murray's 500th career home run, the Orioles have marked where the ball landed...On September 6, 1996 Eddie went deep off Detroit's Felipe Lira to become the 15th member of the 500 HR Club...The ball landed in the right field bleachers and a special seat marks the spot.

BALLPARK TOURS

Fans continue to flock to Camden Yards even when they Orioles aren't playing. Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, more than 350,000 people have toured the nation's most talked about ballpark. Last year, 69,238 people took the tour, which includes behind the scenes looks at the club level suites, press box, scoreboard control room and dugouts. Public tours of Oriole Park and the grounds are given daily throughout the year except when the Orioles play an afternoon game at home. Tour tickets are sold on the day of tours and are available on a first-come, first-served basis at the Orioles Box Office, located at the north end of the B&O Warehouse. For tour schedule, prices and private group tour information, call 410-547-6234.

*-Major League Record

ATTENDANCE

The 1998 Orioles drew 3,685,194 for 81 home dates, the second highest total in franchise history and most in the American League for the fourth straight season. The total was only 25,938 fewer than attended O's games in 1997, when the club set the franchise record with 3,711,132. The Orioles have drawn five of the 16 highest single season attendance totals in major league history:

LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the A.L. in attendance until 1995, and now they've done it four straight years. The O's were one of two A.L. and seven major league teams to top the 3 million mark in 1998, finishing second in the majors to the Colorado Rockies (3,789,347) for the fourth straight season. The Orioles average of 45,496 fans per game also was second in the majors to the Rockies (46,782).

MORE THAN 23 MILLION SOLD: In seven seasons at Oriole Park, the O's have drawn 23,889,894 fans for 529 home dates, an average of 45,160 per game. It took until their 25th season and 1,700 dates for the Orioles to draw as many fans to their former home, Memorial Stadium, topping the Camden Yards total on July 15, 1978. Total attendance in 38 seasons (2,716 dates) at Memorial Stadium was 49,845,588.

SELLOUTS: The Orioles recorded 38 sellouts in 1998, and now have sold out 351 of 529 dates in seven seasons at Camden Yards (66.4%). The O's sold out a then-major league-record 65 consecutive dates form May 23, 1992 through April 20, 1993. The Cleveland Indians broke that mark in 1996.

LARGEST CROWDS, LARGEST SERIES: The '98 Orioles drew 13 of the 14 largest single game crowds ever to watch regular season games at Oriole Park, including the top four. They also set marks for three-game and four-game series totals.

The four largest crowds ever to see a regular season game at Camden Yards came during the 1998 season, led by the 48,374 who attended the August 23 game vs. Cleveland. That helped the August 21-23 series vs. the Indians to attract the largest three-date total in park history, 144,784. The top four three-date series in Oriole Park history occured in 1998, along with the all-time best four-date series, 192, 494 for the July 9-12 set with Boston.

The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 500 of 529 regular season dates at Oriole Park (94.5%). They have drawn 47,000 or more for 171 dates, including 38 in 1998.

Oriole Park's four largest crowds came during the 1997 post-season, topped by the 49,137 fans who attended Game 3 of the Division Series vs. Seattle. The three games vs. Cleveland in the 1997 American League Championship series are the only three other games to draw more than 49,000 fans.

SMALLEST CROWDS: A weekday make-up game against the Texas Rangers on June 20, 1996 drew the smallest crowd ever to attend a game at Oriole Park — 21,748. The make-up was supposed to have been played as part of a doubleheader the previous night, but rain caused the second game to be postponed. The doubleheader was necessitated when the June 17 game between the two clubs ended in a 1-1 tie when rain forced its postponement. The only three dates to draw fewer than 30,000 fans since the ballpark opened have been on week-day make-up games, including the 21,983 who attended an August 15, 1997 game against Seattle that had been cancelled the night before because of a lighting failure in the ballpark (The other date–22,564 for an April 22, 1993 make-up game vs Chicago, ending a string of 65 consecutive sellouts). There have been only seven occasions when the Orioles have drawn fewer than 35,000 at Oriole Park.

RADIO

Announcers: Jim Hunter, Fred Manfra and Chuck Thompson

WBAL (1090 AM) is in its 12th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 1999 season also marks the 34th time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 46 seasons ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Oriole games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

Orioles games are heard on the region's two most powerful 50,000-watt AM stations. In addition to WBAL in Baltimore, WTOP (1500 AM) in Washington, D.C., will once again carry Orioles games this season, meaning O's fans in the mid-Atlantic area will never be out of radio range. In all, there are 17 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering seven states and the District of Columbia.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 3rd year as a member of the Orioles and WBAL Radio broadcast team. He was named to the post on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 21 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 40, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the N.L.C.S., teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the American League Division Series in which the Orioles downed the Cleveland Indians, three games to one, and the N.L.C.S. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

This past off-season Jim hosted the weekly Orioles "Hot Stove" show on WBAL, live from the ESPN Zone in Baltimore's Inner Harbor.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. In was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ and he was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ.

On February 1, 1998, Jim received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association.

Jim resides in Fallston, MD with his wife, Bonnie.They have three children: Jimmy (14), Jeffrey (12), and Allison (8) and a faithful dog named Garth.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 7th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network.

Last year, Fred also called some action from the television booth, working with HTS on four spring training broadcasts.

Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Oriole broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the 1st time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

But baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume inclues some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991) and horse racing's Triple Crown races(Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982-98.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the Unviersity of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball , boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he's received numorous awards for his live action and studio reports.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD. They have two daughters, Michelle, who will graduate from Towson University in June, and Stephanie, an All-County basketball player, who will graduate from Fallston High School this year.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On February 9, 1993, the long-overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the winner of the 1993 Ford C. Frick Award. With that distinction, he took residence in the broadcaster wing alongside the likes of Harry Caray, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, among others. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1993.

A longtime legend in our town, Chuck was coaxed out of a 3-year retirement and returned to the radio booth in 1991 on a part-time basis. This year, he will again work the Orioles home schedule with Fred Manfra and Jim Hunter. Chuck's voice has evoked memories for Baltimore sports fans for nearly half a century, beginning with the International League Orioles in 1949.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in 1939 at WRAW in Reading, Pa. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football. He served in the Army during World War II and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies and Athletics in baseball, the Warriors in basketball, Eagles in football and Rockets in ice hockey.

1999 is Chuck's 50th year of broadcasting in Baltimore! He came to Baltimore in 1949 and became the voice of the International League Orioles and also did the All-America Conference Colts and Navy football as well as Bullets basketball. In 1955, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, did American League Orioles games in 1955-56 and again from 1962-87. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators ('57-'61).

In 1959 and 1960, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week, including the 1960 World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous game-winning, 9th-inning home run which won the 7th and deciding game for Pittsburgh. He later did Orioles World Series games on national television in '66, '69, '70 and '71.

Equally acclaimed as the announcer for Baltimore Colts football, he called the "Greatest Game Ever Played," the classic overtime contest for the 1958 NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants. He also worked the Colts-Packers overtime contest for the NFL's Western Division title in 1965 for CBS-TV.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. And in 1995, he was the first non-uniformed inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, receiving the Herbert Armstrong Award.

Chuck is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. He has 4 children, 12 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. The Thompsons split their time between homes in Timonium, MD, and Bradenton, FL.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.

TELEVISION

Announcers: Jim Palmer, Mike Flanagan, Michael Reghi

For the 6th season, Group W Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) cable and Baltimore's WJZ-TV, will have exclusive rights to produce, televise and sell advertising for all Orioles games, excluding those carried nationally or regionally through Fox Television or ESPN. HTS, which has telecast Orioles games since 1984, will carry 85 regular season and 5 exhibition games. WJZ-TV will telecast 37 regular season games and its broadcast partner, WB54-TV in Baltimore, will air 28 games.

This unique arrangement allows Orioles fans to receive the same highly-acclaimed, award-winning quality telecasts on each outlet, using the same production and broadcast team on cable and on-air. 161 of the team's regular season contests will be televised in 1999, including 150 games scheduled for local broadcast. In addition, seven Orioles games are slated for broadcast on Fox Television and four on ESPN.

Home Team Sports (HTS) is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, D.C., and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

WJZ-TV (Channel 13, CBS) and WNUV-TV (Channel 54, Paramount) will split the over-the-air broadcasts again this season. In addition, WB50-TV (Channel 50), will serve as the Orioles television outlet in Washington, D.C., carrying 58 regular season games.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 7th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and anaylyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 351.

MIKE FLANAGAN

The Orioles Hall of Famer returns to the broadcast booth in 1999 after serving as the Orioles pitching coach last season. Mike was a member of the Orioles broadcast team in 1996 and '97 before joining Ray Miller's coaching staff last year. Mike also served as the team's pitching coach in 1995 under former manager Phil Regan.

Mike will team up with Jim Palmer and Michael Reghi to bring Orioles fans all the action on HTS and O's TV. Flanagan is the 4th winningest pitcher in Orioles history. He pitched for the organization in 17 of his 20 professional seasons. The southpaw compiled a 141-116 record for the Orioles over 15 seasons, and in 1979 won the American League Cy Young Award with a 23-9 record. In 18 major league seasons, he posted a 167-143 record with a 3.90 ERA. Mike reached double figures in victories eight times at the major league level and he appeared in 450 games for the Orioles, 3rd most in club history.

He was traded by the Orioles to the Blue Jays (8/31/87) for Jose Mesa and Oswaldo Peraza and pitched for Toronto through 1990. A starter his entire career, he moved to the bullpen upon his return to the Orioles in 1991, and made 63 relief appearances, including the memorable finale in the last game played at Memorial Stadium. On 10/6/91, Flanagan relieved Gregg Olson with one out in the 9th inning, and to the overwhelming joy of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out the Tigers' Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch on 33rd Street.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Parkton, MD. He has three children: Kerry, Kathryn, and Kendall. "Flanny" was a basketball and baseball player at the University of Massachusetts where he once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity game. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. Mike was originally signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe. His hobbies include fishing.

MICHAEL REGHI

Michael Reghi returns for his 3rd season as the Orioles play-by-play announcer and will team with analysts Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan to call the action on Orioles telecasts on HTS and for O's TV games on Orioles broadcast flagship WJZ TV in Baltimore and Baltimore's WB54 as well as Washington, DC's WB50.

Reghi joined the Orioles and HTS in 1997 with extensive broadcasting credentials. He served as the play-by-play announcer for Cleveland Cavalier telecasts since 1994 and he was the pre-game host of Cleveland Indians telecasts since 1992 for SportsChannel-Ohio and continues to do so in baseball's off-season.

A native of Detroit, Michael also has handled play-by-play duties for the Canadian Football League and college basketball coverage on ESPN and ESPN2, as well as Big Ten football coverage on PASS Sports.

After beginning his career in 1980 as a sports anchor for WLIO TV in Lima, Ohio, Reghi moved forward to WNWO TV in Toledo, Ohio and WEWS TV in Cleveland in 1983. He became sports director at Toledo's WTVG TV in 1986 and also hosted post-game call-in radio programs for Cleveland's all sports station, WKNR Radio following Cleveland Indians and Cleveland Browns games from 1991-96.

When he is not at a ballgame, Michael fills his time with tennis, golf, theater and work with Baltimore's Big Brothers and Big Sisters programs. He also appeared as a baseball playing extra in the 1978 film, "One in a Million," the story of former Detroit Tigers outfielder Ron LeFlore.

Reghi was an All-City linebacker and third baseman when he attended Detroit's Cass Tech High School. He graduated from Arizona State University in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in television and mass communications. During the winter, he married the former Jackie Tilman, a registered nurse at the Cleveland Clinic. They currently reside in Westlake, Ohio during the off-season.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis has been the host of Oriole telecasts on HTS since the cable station began in 1984. In addition to anchoring "The Orioles Report" 30 minutes before each HTS game, Tom provides in-game score updates, highlights, behind-the-scene interviews and post-game interviews.

Now in his 28th year as a local sportscaster, Tom has been sports director for WQSR (105.7FM) since July, 1988, doing updates and commentary on the station's "Rouse & Company" morning show. He also produces and hosts the popular TV shows "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" (during the baseball season) and "Braase, Donovan and Fans" (during football season).

A 5-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Tom began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL radio and had two stints at WCBM-AM.

Tom also has worked for NBC-TV, where he did play-by-play for 1986 NFL games. On NBC Radio, he did play-by-play for the 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1987 AFC playoff game between the Jets and Browns. He also served as host for NBC Radio's coverage of the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, Korea, as well as doing play-by-play on men's basketball and boxing. He has done play-by-play on a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College HS, he received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He is the father of two children, Malinda (24) and Tad (21), and lives in Baltimore County.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates celebrated their 38th anniversary the summer in 1998. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballclub with ticket sales to business and organizations throughout the Orioles region.
